RE: EB- 11-GB-0029

Dear (Name withheld):

The Federal Communications Commission has previously notified you by letter on June 8, 2011 that it has received complaints of harmful radio interference that is apparently caused by a pool pump located at (address withheld). This interference has been reported by an operator in the Amateur Radio Service. The complainant is:

(Address withheld)
(Address withheld)

The complainant has attempted unsuccessfully to resolve this problem and as a result the matter has been referred to our office. The Commission prefers that those responsible for the proper operation of equipment assume their responsibilities fairly. This means that you should resolve the interference caused by the device and make necessary corrections within a reasonable time. The June 8, 2011, letter specifically stated, however, that if it became necessary for the Commission to facilitate a resolution, the Commission might investigate possible rule violations and address appropriate remedies, including monetary forfeitures.¹

According to (name withheld), you have not contacted him regarding the interference nor has the interference been rectified. Lack of response to the Commission's letter is not acceptable. In order to avoid enforcement action on this matter, you have thirty (30) days from the date of receipt of this letter to respond to this office at the following address: 1270 Fairfield Road, Gettysburg, PA 17325. The response must contain a statement of the specific action(s) taken to eliminate the source(s) of (name withheld) radio interference. If you have any questions about this matter, please contact me at 717-338-2577.
